

San Diego DUI Attorney Prehire Checklist

1. Are you on the Teaching Faculty for the Prestigious National College for DUI Defense?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

2. Are you asked to speak and/or teach at NCDD Conferences?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

3. Have you been selected as a Top Attorney in San Diego by the San Diego Daily Transcript?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

4. Have you been selected as a Super Lawyer?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

5. Have you been named the best of the bar?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

6. Are you a “Specialist Member” of the California DUI Lawyers Association?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

7. Is your firm an Exclusive DUI Defense Firm?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?

8. How many active cases are you currently handling?

9. Are you a one-person operation? Do you have any full time support staff?

10. If you are a solo attorney with little or no support staff, what happens when you are in a trial, or when you are on vacation, or are sick, or have cases in several courts on the same day? Who exactly is working on my case?

11. Who will provide the checks and balances to make sure NO mistakes are ever made in my case?

12. How many DUI Trials have you done as a defense attorney?

13. Of the DUI cases you have taken to trial, as a defense lawyer, how many have you won?

14. How often are you asked to teach other lawyers how to do what you do?

15. Do you have an A+ rating with the San Diego Better Business Bureau?

Yes or No.

If no, why not?